HOME ECONOMICS WAS INTERESTING

Large Attendance to Listen to Talk by Electric Co. Speaker.

OTHER NEWS OF CLUB

The best way to secure a good attendance at a Community Club meeting is to announce a home economics program. This was proved once more on Tuesday, November 17, when the Philadelphia Electric Company sent Miss Gertrude Shearer to talk of the "The Home Behind You."

Miss Shearer showed most charmingly how the woman with electric appliances for saving time and labor can have time and strength to leave her home behind her at times without feeling any qualms of conscience; and how well chosen and well placed lighting fixtures add to the beauty, comfort and healthfulness of the home. Her talk was supplemented by moving pictures of "The Home Electric," illustrating both lighting and labor-saving devices, thereby emphasizing the contrast between the home with no electric helps and one with all possible ones, from the range and refrigerator in the kitchen to the curling iron and massage vibrator in my lady's boudoir.

Since electricity is the only commodity which has not increased in price since the war, it is surprising how few of the Philadelphia Electric Company's thousands of customers use the current for much else than lighting. A number of smaller electrical appliances were examined by the ladies present with much interest. Mrs. John Trotter supplied piano accompaniment to the pictures.

After the program delicious cider and gingerbread was served. The hostess was Mrs. J. E. Burrill, aided by Mrs. E. Davis, Mrs. R. Nash, Mrs. L. H. Trotter, Mrs. H. M. Chalfant, Mrs. J. W. Darville, Mrs. H. S. Hipwell and Mrs. J. S. Hongler.

The Community Club meeting on Tuesday, December 1, will be a business meeting to consider amendments to the by-laws and means of raising money to meet the dues to the State Federation. There is to be a box luncheon before the meeting.

Our very energetic Hospitality Committee, not satisfied with its routine duties, is to give a luncheon and card party on Tuesday, December 8. Luncheon will be served from 1 to 2 P. M. Tickets at 50 cents may be obtained from the committee, Mrs. A. Y. Reinling, chairman.

THANK OFFERING

The third annual Thank Offering Service of the Women's Missionary Society will be held in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth and Woodbine avenues, on next Sunday, November 22, at 7.45 P. M. There will be a pageant by members of the Sunday School and the Thank Offering will be gathered in from our "daily blessing" boxes.

The regular meetings of Luther League and Junior Luther League will be held at 7 P. M. Come to these meetings and bring your friends.

PORCH BLAZES

The Narberth Fire Company was called out Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a blaze under the back porch at the residence of A. R. Kneibler, 100 Elmwood avenue.

The fire was apparently set by youngsters experimenting with matches under the porch. The house was filled with smoke, but prompt action by the firemen restricted the damage to a part of the porch.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mr. J. A. Roberts, of 114 Elmwood avenue, was tendered a surprise party dinner on Wednesday evening, November 18, at his home.

The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Price Ball, of Frankford; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roberts, of Swarthmore; Mr. F. Millwood Justice, Mr. J. Wallace Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Roberts.

This is your paper and your advice is appreciated.

New Business Section May Soon Rise at Border of Narberth

Indications point to the probability that a large new business section will soon spring up on Montgomery avenue, facing the northern boundary of the Borough of Narberth.

Barred from residential parts of the borough by the zoning ordinance business interests will soon take up their stand in Lower Merion but a few feet from the borough limits it is rumored.

Several years ago the American Stores Company started the talk of a new business section by applying for a permit to erect a store on North Narberth avenue south of Sabine avenue. This the borough authorities refused on the ground that it would be a detriment to the borough to have a store established in a residential district.

The matter hung fire for months, ending with a threat on the part of the interests back of the store to take the borough into Court and compel them to issue a permit.

In the meantime, though, the zoning law went into effect and the matter died a natural death.

The first indication of a new development on the northern hem of Narberth came some months ago when Joseph T. Barclay, of Lionville, Pa., a former resident of Narberth, purchased a plot of ground on Montgomery avenue just west of Albrecht's Nurseries and erected a sign announcing that stores would be built.

He sold the plot, however, to Ritzenhouse Brothers, who are now erecting a group of stores.

Next appeared stakes at the northeast corner of Narberth and Montgomery avenues and it is stated that James A. Stretch is behind a plan to erect a business building on that corner, one of the principal entrances to the borough.

Unconfirmed reports are about, also, that plans are hatching for a development further east on the pike at Gordon avenue. It is rumored that L. Stanley King, well-known druggist of Cynwyd has purchased the plot with the intention of erecting a new drug store.

Closely allied with these beginnings of a new business block come plans of property owners for the widening of Montgomery avenue at that point. A. E. Wohler, owner of the Garden Nurseries, has prepared plans to widen the pike in front of his holdings for about 12 feet.

He has approached Hansell Brothers, owners of the adjacent frontage, and they have indicated their intention of joining in the improvement. No definite plans have been announced by either of these owners as to just when the widening will be done. Efforts will be made to have all the property owners join in the project.

The planned new business section would draw trade from a part of the north side of Narberth, from the "suburbs" on the other side of the borough line and from the new developments at and near the old Belmont Race Track.

GIVE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Narberth Holiday House Aided by Performance at Academy.

The fifth annual "Harvest Music Festival" in aid of the King's Daughters' Holiday House of Narberth was held in the Academy of Music Tuesday night. A large audience heard a program of vocal, orchestral and dance offerings.

Those participating were Edmund Burke, basso; Natalina Contino, soprano; the Marneins, Miriam, Irene and Phyllis; and what was announced as "forty members of the Philadelphia Orchestra," although the Philadelphia Orchestra happened to be playing at the same time in New York under Stokowski. Clarence C. Nice, of Elm Terrace, conducted.

Miss Contino sang two Verdi arias, "Ritorna Vincitor" from "Aida" and "Madre pietosa Vergine" from "Forza." Mr. Burke was heard in arias from Bizet's "Jolie Fille de Perth" and Massenet's "Herodiade." The dancers did numbers by Mandelsohn, Schubert, MacDowell, Saint-Saens and others, and the orchestra ranged from Wagner's "Rienzi" overture to a Chopin Polonaise.

McCARTER-SPEAKMAN

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Speakman, daughter of Mrs. William E. Speakman, of West Philadelphia, to Mr. Charles Howard McCarter, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCarter, of Narberth, took place in Narberth last Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was a quiet one, attended only by relatives of the couple. The service was conducted by the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, of the Baptist Church of the Evangel.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCarter graduated from the Narberth High School; Mr. McCarter in 1916 and his wife a year later. Mrs. McCarter, after completing her musical education, returned to the local schools as music teacher, which position she held for two years. Mr. C. Howard McCarter, Sr., is president of the Narberth School Board.

After a short trip to Atlantic City the couple will make their home in Haddonfield, N. J.

MR. BECKER'S BIRTHDAY

Mr. Albert J. Becker, of Forest avenue, will celebrate his birthday next Friday. Mr. Becker does not remember the Civil War but he can tell you much about fraternal organizations, especially of the Knights of Columbus, of which he is a prominent past officer.

ORCHESTRA SOLOIST

Studied in Berlin—Program for Sunday Interesting.

Rosetta Samuel French will be the soloist with the Main Line Orchestra Sunday afternoon at the Ardmore Theatre.

She studied in Berlin with Stepanoff from 1911 to 1914 and returning to Boston studied with Gebhard for two years. She was the winner last year of the Pennsylvania State Contest, the Liberty District Contest, forerunners of the National Biennial Contest held at Portland, Oregon, and winning second place.

Mrs. French will play the first movement of the G Minor Saint-Saens Concerto with orchestral accompaniment and in the second half a group of solos.

An interesting program has been arranged by Adolph Vogel, conductor of the orchestra, for this the opening concert of the season.

The orchestra will play Iphigenia in Aulis, by Gluck; the Andante from the Fifth Symphony, by Beethoven; Dreams, by Wagner; Minuet and Barcarolle, by Offenbach; the Andante from Ballet Egyptian and Dance of the Archers, by Borodin, which will close the program.

BABB-EYRE

A quiet wedding took place last Saturday at the home of the Rev. John VanNess when Miss Eleanor Bond Eyre, daughter of Mr. Albert B. Eyre, of Woodside avenue, became the bride of Mr. George Hoskins Babb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McV. Babb, of Cynwyd.

The ceremony, attended only by the immediate families of the couple, was performed at 11.00 A. M. Miss Margaret K. Eyre, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mr. Robert L. Russell acted as best man.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Babb are well known in Narberth. The bride graduated from the Narberth High School in the Class of 1919. At school, and later as a member of a Pennsylvania Railroad team, she has shown her skill as a basketball player.

Mr. Babb, who attended Lower Merion High School, has played for several years on the Narberth and Bala-Cynwyd baseball teams.

After a luncheon at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel the young couple left for New York. Upon their return they will make their home in Narberth.

WENT TO FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Touhill, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dambach and daughter, Jean, have returned from a 3000-mile motor trip to Daytona, Fla., where Mr. Touhill is interested in some property.

OVER $513,000 IN SAVINGS TO GO OUT

Main Line Banks Will Send Out Checks to Club Savers

SHOWS A BIG INCREASE

Over $513,000 will be distributed from now until December 10 to residents of the Main Line, members of Christmas Clubs in banks from Bala-Cynwyd to Paoli. Checks are now being sent out by some of the banks; others will follow shortly.

Christmas Clubs have proved popular here since they were first inaugurated some years ago and have grown rapidly. This year $55,000 more will be distributed by Bryn Mawr, Ardmore and Bala-Cynwyd banks than last year. This reflects a growth of 1100 per cent., as the increase in these banks last year over the previous year was but $5000.

In 1925 the Bryn Mawr, Ardmore and Bala-Cynwyd banks sent out checks for $361,000. This year these same institutions will send out checks totaling $406,000. This is a net increase over last year for the lower Main Line banks of $55,000.

The Merion Title and Trust Company, the largest financial institution on the Main Line, with offices in Ardmore, Narberth and Bala-Cynwyd, will send out the largest amount, $230,000. This is an increase of $20,000 over the sum it distributed to Christmas Club savers last year.

B. M. Trust Best Percentage.

The Bryn Mawr Trust Company will give out but $45,000, but this sum represents an increase of $10,000 over its last year's figures. In its increase, the Bryn Mawr Trust stands second to the Merion Title in actual figures and in its percentage of increase it is far ahead of any of the other lower Main Line banks.

The sums which will be distributed to Christmas Club members follow: Main Line National Bank of Wayne, $11,000; Paoli National Bank, $24,000; Ardmore National Bank, $25,000; Berwyn National Bank, $26,000; Bryn Mawr Trust Company, $45,000; Wayne Title and Trust Company, $62,000; Bryn Mawr National Bank, $90,000; Merion Title and Trust Company, $230,000.

MAIN LINE FOOTBALL CLASSIC WILL BE STAGED TODAY AT ARDMORE

De Luxe Game of the Season Finds Radnor and Lower Merion Athletes Ready for the Fray and Rarin' to Go. Statistics of the Teams.

The Lower Merion-Radnor game! Game of countless memories and traditions! The game that decides the success or failure of the football teams of Wayne and Ardmore! This afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Lower Merion grounds the twenty-sixth game between the two schools will be staged and it is a safe bet that every able-bodied football enthusiast on the Main Line will lay aside dull care on this day and with megaphone in hand be there to whoop things up for his favorite team.

For this afternoon comes the football classic of the Main Line; the day both teams have been pointing for; the day that arouses to its highest pitch loyalty to school and colors in the hearts of all. No half-heartedness about the fray; every play is pushed through for all its worth; no love is ever lost between the two—it's the big game and the best game of the year.

The crowd enters into the spirit of the thing and becomes intensely partisan. Either you are for Lower Merion or you're against her, and if the latter don't, for safety's sake, sit on the Lower Merion side!

If it's a good day a crowd of 10,000 people will see the battle. The Lower Merion authorities have been preparing all year to handle the crowd. Extra grandstands have been built and although certainly there will not be enough seats for all many more have been provided than in the past. The game has grown from a small fracas to a great struggle that interests practically everyone along the Main Line.

Radnor Has Good Chance.

Today's contest will assume an especially commanding interest in that for the first time in several years Radnor has a good chance to make things interesting for Lower Merion. Radnor has had a fairly successful season this year. Five games have been won, two lost and one tied. So far as comparative scores go Lower Merion has the edge, because they defeated Lansdowne 30 to 0, while Radnor managed to lay the same team low by only a 6 to 0 score. But time after time it has been proved that comparative scores, previous victories or defeats, statistics or what not, matter not an iota when Lower Merion and Radnor face each other in the annual struggle. Past performances must be forgotten—too often they don't enter into the case at all.

Lower Merion has a good team—a dandy team. Only one game have they lost in four years, and that by a single point. They are the favorites to win.

L. M. Started Slow.

Starting out under a new coach, Lower Merion began its season slowly. Victories were won, one after the other but by low scores. Mentor Albert C. Adams was drilling the Maroon and White players in his own system and for the first few weeks only straight football was used. Passes were scarce and trick plays were rare.

But as game after game progressed, the Ardmore eleven became better and better drilled in the fundamentals; showed more team-work and polish. Then two weeks ago, coach Adam decided his men were sufficiently grounded.

LOWER MERION READY TO HANDLE BIG GAME CROWD

Everything humming at the high school in preparation for the Radnor game, all the grandstand seats carefully spaced and marked and 10 sections, A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I and J, fenced off for the final and biggest clash of the year.

Each section has been divided into 12 rows (1-12) and 23 seats in each row. The sections A and J are end sections and F, G and H have been made school sections for the student bodies of both Lower Merion Senior and Junior High Schools. That means that out of 10 sections seven sections are left open to be reserved by the Alumni and friends of the school at $1.00 per seat. All seats for the fray are reserved so as to give persons interested a definite assurance of having seats, rain or shine.

Tickets Go Fast.

Tickets for the oldest and largest Main Line scrap are on sale at the Lower Merion High School Office, at King's Drug Store, Cynwyd; Crane's Drug Store, Narberth; Main Line and West's Drug Store, Ardmore; Prickett's Drug Store, Rosemont, and Moore's Drug Store, Bryn Mawr. Early in the week tickets were going faster than hot cakes and several places were sold out.

The School Band of 45 pieces has been practicing since the beginning of the school semester and under the tutelage of Mr. Fred C. Patten, band leader, will furnish melody and harmony on the field. Last week while at Pottstown the band opened up and really subdued Pottstown's professional band, both in quality of music and the number of selections played. Much is expected of them at the Radnor game. They were priming up this week to outshine any attempt of Radnor in music.

Many have seen the town sloganized up "Beat Radnor" in many riotous hues and on most conspicuous places, telephone poles, sidewalks, fences, steps and gates being the general targets. Placards also have been printed bearing this slogan and distributed around in the neighboring shop windows and enthusiasm and spirit rank high throughout the township.

Practice in Secret.

Beginning on Monday the Maroon and White football squad received its first cut of the season being reduced in personnel to the first two teams. Practice has been held behind closed gates and in secret session. Fort, who has been missing in the line up in the past few games through an infection, has returned and the squad as a whole is almost entirely clear of injury. The Ardmore eleven is slightly favored by comparative scores to win over its oldest rival, but Radnor's earnestness and zeal has been exhibited throughout all but the last fray played and in that the Radnorites were clearly saving themselves for the following Saturday. Thus both elevens are at almost equal par and a likely battle is heralded.

K. OF C. ATHLETIC NIGHT

Bishop Kenrick Council, K. of C., of Ardmore, will give an athletic night next Tuesday in Williamson Hall. Noted baseball, basketball and football men will make addresses, among them being one of the Four Horsemen, Harry Stuhldreher, football coach at Villanova College.

that the pitcher may go to the fountain once too often.

That some errors both of omission and commission should have occurred is not surprising in view of the hundreds of marks required by the new type of report. These will all be adjusted and corrected in the course of time.

Most everybody has seen the "Book Week" posters by the seventh grade, that were in the Community Library. The slogan selected was:

"There is no frigate like a book,
To take us miles away."

The posters on display belong to the following:
Kenneth Claypoole, James McIntyre, Wm. Newborg, Richard Sigel, Alethea Avery, Edna LaBoube, Helen Staley, Kitty Limm, Anna Van Auker.

They have been displayed all around the school building.

Friday afternoon, November 13, there was a hockey game between the ninth and eighth grades of the Narberth Junior High School. The ninth grade won with a score of 2-0. Elma Reese, of the Lower Merion High School, refereed the game as Miss Church, the physical instructor, was very ill with ptomaine poisoning. We hope she will be better so she may referee the game on Thursday, November 19, in which the Narberth Hockey Team will play.

Friday morning assembly period was devoted to Book Week. The ninth grade gave a pageant of book characters. Such characters as Tiny Tim, Bob Cratchit, Little Women and Sailor Ben came to life in a remarkable state of preservation. Next the eighth grade produced a play written by Alice Monks and Phyllis Grant. It was dramatized very well by members of the class. The last, but not least, was the seventh grade program. It consisted of a play written by Betty Green. The play was based on Aladdin, so it seemed. Robert Graham as Aladdin, the servant of the lamp, brought to us scenes from Penrod, Alice in Wonderland, Tom Sawyer and Treasure Island. Penrod read his sister's love letter amid much excitement and the Tweedle-Dum Tweedle-Dee twins fought over a rattle, which also caused much laughter throughout the audience. After several songs, the assembly adjourned.

Other things were done to celebrate Book Week. A number of ninth grade students went to different rooms and told stories pertaining to Book Week.

The editors are Kathryn Augst, Susan Reeves, Virginia Eyre and Jean Staples.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Last Tuesday evening at the Girl Scout meeting, Mrs. Charles Harrison awarded the "Troop Advancement" badges which were earned last year by the scouts.

The Committee of District No. 8 intended these badges to be given to the troop which showed the greatest advancement "not only in merit badges and members but an increase back of all scouting, which would make it more worthwhile."

Mrs. Charles Harrison, a member of the Main Line Council, said in her brief talk that the qualities "responsibility and co-operation in combination with scout spirit" are the means by which this may be accomplished.

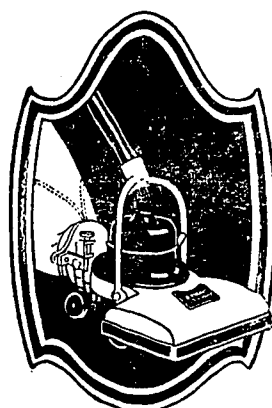

Eight girls received their tenderfoot pins. Miss Julia Williamson, the troop's fairy "godmother," invested the girls and emphasized the seriousness of the service.

In appreciation of the work of Captain Ruth Nash and Lieutenant Marion Cook, Mrs. Harrison, in behalf of the committee, presented a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums to them.

What Four of Your Neighbors say about the Apex Quality Radio Apparatus

Cuba, Florida and Better

Dear Mr. Case:

I am glad to say the very good word which is in order on the Apex Console Set which you sold us. It is proving entirely satisfactory in every way and affords particular pleasure in the manner in which it dragnets the great outside for our benefit, bringing in Cuba, Florida and other far-reaches with a clarity and harmony we have never seen excelled by any other equipment. And if we were not in the habit of going to bed so very early o' nights, I am quite sure the California stations, not to mention Eiffel Tower, would be easy victims of its ordinary capabilities. It's a splendid set and no doubt about it.

J. J. CABREY.

Tried Two Others

Dear Mr. Case:

It gives me great pleasure to advise you that I am getting the most satisfactory results from the use of the Apex Receiving Set, in accordance with a Hartmann Loud Speaker.

I have previously had two other sets, both of which are considered high-grade equipment, but neither of them have given the results, either for clarity or selectivity, that I am obtaining from the Apex.

A. S. LONGBOTTOM.

Distance Without Distortion

Dear Sir:

It will probably gratify you to learn that we are very much pleased with the Apex Receiving Set you have installed for us.

The Set has a mellow, clear tone, with practically no distortion; it is very selective, and with local stations operating we have no difficulty in turning in distant stations, even during this time of the year. We have had Cuba, New Orleans, Miami, and Chicago with the same volume as local stations.

I wish to thank you, too, for the trouble and care you have gone to in installing the Set.

F. B. NEELY.

All That Could Be Desired

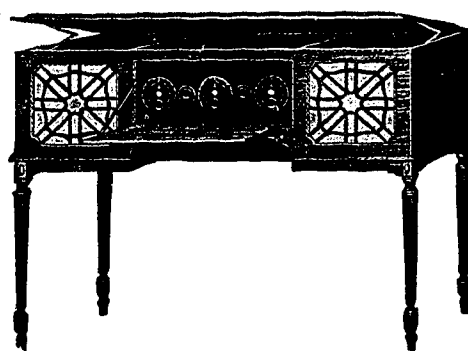

Mr. W. G. Case,

Dear Sir:

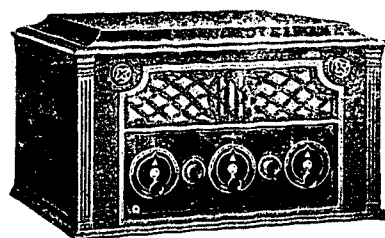

The Apex Super Five you recently installed is the best Set I have listened to. Its purity of tone is beautiful and the volume is all that could be desired.

I picked up two Florida stations while local stations were broadcasting.

Christmas Savings.

No Christmas checks are being distributed by the Bala-Cynwyd National or by the Narberth National Bank, as these institutions began business this year, too late to start clubs. Clubs in these institutions will likely be inaugurated this year.

Ardmore Leads.

Ardmore, with $255,000 to its credit, leads the other communities of the Main Line in Christmas saving. Bryn Mawr is second with $135,000 and Wayne is third with $73,000.

The last payments to be made in the 1925 clubs range from November 16 to November 30. Payments in the 1926 clubs will commence November 30 for the Bryn Mawr National, December 7 for the Wayne Title and Trust, and December 1 for the remaining banks and trust companies.

The $513,000 credited to the Christmas savers is an interesting one to financial authorities, especially as Christmas Saving Clubs were first opposed here by some bank directors when they were inaugurated.

Last Year's Totals.

The saving totals for last year were as follows:

The Merion Title and Trust Company had 400 accounts, totaling $210,000. The Ardmore National Bank had 800 Christmas accounts, with total savings of $25,000. The Bryn Mawr National Bank sent out checks for $91,000 to 1900 depositors in the Christmas fund. The Bryn Mawr Trust Company conducted its fund this year for the first time and sent checks for $35,000 to about 900 depositors.

Clubs at First Fads.

Christmas savings clubs, followed by vacation fund clubs, at first heralded as fads, have become institutions in the various communities where banks have taken up the idea. Christmas savings clubs are most universally popular and their discontinuance, were it attempted, would be protested most energetically.

Membership in the clubs is divided among people in all walks of life, the wealthy and the poor, the young and the old. In a number of instances the Christmas savings fund has filled the gap in many an emergency. "Dad" has found that it makes shopping easier and furnishes an added zest to the joy of gift-giving. What is true of "dad" is true with the other members of the family. Many merchants declare that it has increased pre-Christmas sales materially.

INTERCITY BOWLING LEAGUE

Baptist Battlers at Top of Local Rollers.

The matches of the last week in which the Methodist Marathons took three games from the Lutheran Lions left the former entrenched in second place in the league, although they are only slightly ahead of the Methodist Meteors, who secured a firm grip on the third position by taking two games from the Presbyterian Pilots. The Baptist Battlers are still at the head of the list. The Presbyterian Pilots, however, will do all they can to spoil the perfect score of the Baptists in their match during the coming week.

Scores for the past week follow:

FOR BUSY WOMEN

Many Helpful Books and Magazines at the Library.

Every woman is a busy woman these days simply because she is living, and it is the desire of each one to accomplish each task in the best possible manner within the limited time available for it. Foremost among these duties is serving daily attractive, economical and nourishing meals for her family, and not to let that engross her whole day. With this in mind the Community Library has recently purchased "The Busy Woman's Cook Book."

This book shows how to prepare and how to serve course dinners in 15 minutes, in 20 minutes and in 30 minutes. The menus are varied, well arranged, appetizing, with "nothing out of a can." The author states that she has prepared each of these menus on a three-burner gas stove with an oven attached, and that while they are meant to serve two hungry people, adding to the portions should not add materially to the time required for preparing and cooking.

Political responsibilities are placing new demands on the time of busy women. Those who are conscientious will welcome the assistance in these matters which can be procured easily by glancing through "The Woman Citizen," which is a monthly magazine that is contributed to the Library reading table by the local branch of the League of Women Voters. This magazine, although a new one, is showing steady improvement in each issue and is filled with constructively helpful news comment and information.

The Library also has regularly on the reading table many other periodicals of particular interest to women, and on its shelves there are books on home furnishing, on home economics, on period furniture and on gardening.

LOWER MERION-RADNOR SET FOR ANNUAL CLASSIC

ed in the elementals and gave them a bag of tricks. The result was a dazzling attack that stunned opponents. Scores jumped. Lansdowne High, the first victim, went down without a trace to a 35-0 count and last week Pottstown composed largely of subs. Such is the power of the rejuvenated team which will face Radnor.

Miller is Field General.

In Marone Miller, its varsity quarterback, acquired this year from Texas, Lower Merion has a field-general of ability. In captain Gene Kuen, Tubby Fort and Tim Faulk, it has three elusive ends and in Mandes, Miller, Kohlas and Knauer, Lower Merion has a formidable backfield. With this combination and a line that has been developing steadily the Ardmore school has an eleven that should cause oodles of trouble for the Radnor host.

Radnor Shy of Stars.

There are no particular stars in the Radnor firmament. Coach Sweeney has given his men a thorough tryout under fire this year and substitutions have been many. The line has for the most part been composed of Lamby and Brown at ends, Hill and Harkins at tackles, Zimmerman and Arena at guards and Usher at center. It's a good line from end to end with Hill and Lamby probably the outstanding players.

Hill is a great tackle when he is in the humor, and Lamby has developed from mediocrity to a first-class end.

The backs have been McMonigle and Capolla quarterbacks, one about as good as the other; Donaghy, Lee, Clark and Lentz half-backs; and Webb full-back. Lentz is a good defensive back and a splendid punter; Webb is the line plunger; Lee and Donaghy are good all-around backs, while Clark is at his best in the open field. Captain Nelson has seen little service in the backfield since the first game due to an injury, but will probably see action against Lower Merion.

L. M. Had Good Season.

Lower Merion has had, as usual, a most successful season. Seven games have been won and only one lost. Wilmington High School won out in a close game, 7 to 6, and gave Lower Merion her first defeat in four seasons.

For the comparative hounds information we present the following:

Lower Merion beat Berwyn, 14 to 7; Radnor beat them, 15 to 6; Lower Merion walloped Cheltenham, 27 to 0; Radnor nosed them out, 6 to 0. Lower Merion took West Chester into camp, 12 to 9; Radnor defeated them by a field goal, 3 to 0. Lansdowne High fell a victim to the Lower Merion menace, 35 to 0; Radnor won from the same bunch, 6 to 0. Take these scores and figure what you want.

Twenty-sixth Game.

This will be the twenty-sixth game between the two rivals. In the long series which started in 1898 Radnor has won 13 games, Lower Merion eight and four games were tied. The Ardmore team has been the victor in the last three contests. Radnor holds the record for the highest score with the 1920 game when Ted Ferry and his gang rolled up 56 points to nothing. Lower Merion's largest count was 23 in 1923 when 23 points were scored against the Red and White.

The scores from 1898 to 1924 follow:

The statistics of the two elevens show that Lower Merion will have a team on the field that will average 158 pounds to the man. Radnor's boys will average 145 pounds. Lower Merion's line from end to end figures up to a 165 pound average while the backs, with an average of 151, pull the combined total down. Radnor's line will average around 150 pounds while the back-field will also be lighter, for an average of 141 pounds. These figures give Lower Merion an advantage in weight of 13 pounds to the man in the team average. The Radnor line will be outweighed 15 pounds to the man, while the backfield suffers in comparison at the rate of 10 pounds to the player.
